

And Now A Word From....

The East

The West

My Brothers,

One month into the new year and we're off to a great start. January was busy with installations and I would like to thank the officers and brothers who attended and in some cases, assisted with the other installations. It was nice to see our lodge well represented. I also want to thank Bro. Jeff Morgan for all his work arranging the tent at the Scottish Highland Games again this year. It was a great time and it's nice to see brothers from around the country and around the world stop by year after year.

February is the time when things get back to normal. Masters & Wardens, School of Instruction, Open Books, etc, will all begin again this month. School of Instruction will be at Mokanna this month. On Feb. 9th, we will host the Zone 5 Masonic Leadership Training course and on February 23rd, Open Books. Check the lodge website for more information. We will also begin practice for the upcoming Ritual Competition starting on Monday, Feb 4th at 7pm.

Also in February, we will be honoring the Past Masters and Widows of Winter Park Lodge at our dinner meeting on February 26th. Please join us as we show our gratitude to those who served our lodge as Worshipful Master and extend the widows of brothers who have passed, our sincere care and affection.

Fraternally,

John Halter

Worshipful Master

Hello Friends and Brothers,

I'm very happy to serve Winter Park 239 and the good people who associated with it.

In January we paid a visit to the Scottish Highland Games in Winter Springs FL. This time I paid more attention to the renaissance camp and battle exhibition. The ground armor battle with real armor and real weapons was no hold back and at the end you could see the exhaustion in their faces. Definitely not a sport for me.

To all Masons of Winter Park 239. If you haven't been in awhile and think "I wouldn't know anybody." Don't miss the opportunity to make new friends. There's a lot going on in the Lodge and its not only about the officers and what they are doing.. Come to lodge and figure out where you belong.

Fraternally,

Jeff Morgan

More Words From...

The South

I would like to start out by saying thank you to the Craft for allowing me to serve as your Junior Warden this year. We have a great corps of officers and have no doubt that 2013 will be another great year for Winter Park Lodge. That being said, January was a busy month with all of the traveling to the various Lodge installations. It was great to meet my counterparts around the district and get to know them so we can begin to coordinate our plans as we continue our journey to the East. I was also pleasantly surprised to see that there are several Lodges with Junior Wardens that are close me in age, with two being even younger than me! This younger crowd will be the ones who will be the torch bearers for the next generation of Masonry.

For our meetings this month, we will be having gumbo and dirty rice at our first stated meeting, which happens to be Mardi Gras, and for our dinner meeting on the 26th, the kitchen will be serving up enchiladas, beans & rice. Also, don't forget to come to Open Books on the 23rd. It is an excellent opportunity to further your knowledge of Masonry, either by studying the esoteric work in plain text, or from talking with other brothers from around the District and Zone about various aspects of the Craft.

The Secretary

Recently, I had a discussion with a Brother Mason on the popular news web site Reddit. He lamented the lack of attention members of his lodge gave him and used it as a reason to no longer attend lodge. I asked him if he would only go to lodge if he was called and invited and his answer, in a nutshell, was “Yes.” At first, my response was indignation. Masonry isn't a place of children to be led. It is a place for men to show initiative. If you haven't found your place in Freemasonry, it is only because you haven't looked hard enough.

But then, I reconsidered my position. The Brother I spoke with felt that it was the duty of the Worshipful Master to be the one to reach out to every member of the lodge. I think that is a duty that is incumbent on each and every one of us. We don't need to wait for the Worshipful Master to call us before we go to lodge. We don't need to wait for someone to tell us how to get the most out of Masonry. Pick up the phone and call a Brother. Just to say Hello. Offer to drive a Brother to lodge. Or Scottish Rite. Or the Shrine. Send an email. Offer encouragement. Do something. Anything!

As members of the lodge, it is our duty to reach out and welcome members to lodge and become as active as we can. And as Masons in the world, we should not sit and wait for opportunity or invitation; it is our duty to show the initiative and be leaders.

Past Masters & Widows

Past Masters and Widows dinner is an opportunity to thank and acknowledge those who have bared the weight and struggles of leading this Lodge over its life. Some of the wives will say that they didn't do much, that isn't true. No man remains a Mason if his wife doesn't approve and no man rises to be the Worshipful Master if his wife doesn't promote his ever growing commitment to the Lodge.

The Worshipful Master and officers of Winter Park 239 are pleased to invite you for dinner and 6:30pm on the 26th of February. The Junior Warden will be serving enchiladas, beans & rice.
