April 2025

The Trestle Board is your monthly newsletter brought to you by the Brothers of Winter Park Lodge No. 239. Stated Communications are the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays of every month. Refreshment at 6:30 p.m. Meeting at 7:30 p.m. 1495 Grand Road, Winter Park, Florida 32789. Phone 407-679-6800 for more information.

Greetings from the East Brethren!

Every month I look at my Trestleboard article from this time last year to get an idea of what to write. This month is no different. It looks like this time last year we had just had an EA degree and were lining up a FC degree. How amazing is that that we are literally at the same point this year? We had a few hurdles in the process but here we are killing it again! I am so proud to be a member of Winter Park Lodge. With that said lets talk about the future. We've got some big things coming up! On Mar 29th we have a joint social Outing with Orange 36. By the time you read this that will have passed but I'm sure it was a rousing success. Apr 1st a FC degree for Bro. Andrasi.

Same statement, I suspect we are gonna nail it. Apr. 5th Masters and Wardens at Orange Blossom 80. Lets bring that cup home! Our regular stated communications on the 8th and the 22nd. We will have another guest speaker on Masonic Education on the 22nd. The ever thriving Lodge Game Night on Apr 18th. This has always been such a success, I love seeing the brothers, families and friends all just having a great time. And those of you who are Scottish Rite let us not forget the Scottish Rite Reunion on Apr 12th and 13th. If you aren't, maybe you should be. It is the "university of Freemasonry" after all. And lets cap the month of with even more learning, Open Books from 8-12 and School of Instruction from 12:30-2 on Apr 26th at our very own Winter Park. The Lodge hosts the books and your very own Junior Warden handles breakfast and lunch. Does it get any easier than that to get your learning on? Like I always say, a busy Lodge is a happy Lodge and man we stay busy! See you all there!

Look well to the East Brethren

Dear Brethren,

As April rolls in, it brings with it plenty of opportunities to connect, grow, and strengthen the bonds of brotherhood. Whether you enjoy witnessing the beauty of Masonic ritual, diving into thought-provoking discussions, or simply having fun with your brothers, this month offers something for everyone.

We kick things off with a Fellow Craft Degree on April 1st, a meaningful evening where we'll support our brothers as they take another step in their Masonic journey. Later in the month, Game Board Night returns on April 18th—an event that never fails to bring out laughter, camaraderie, and maybe even a bit of competitive spirit.

For those seeking light through education, Open Books on April 26th offers the perfect chance to deepen your knowledge of Masonic ritual, while the Philosophy Book Club on April 29th will be a great space to share insights and perspectives on meaningful topics.

With so many opportunities from different respects, there's no shortage of ways to be involved. Whether it's your voice during discussion, your hands at work, or simply your presence that inspires another brother—you are needed and truly important for the overall égrégore of our lodge.

Look well to the West, my brothers—April is shaping up to be another incredible month, and I look forward to sharing it with you all.

Fraternally,
Bro. Juan Carrero
Senior Warden

Greetings for the South My Brothers,

We made it to April and it has been a busy time for the Kitchen staff at the Lodge. By the time you read this, we will have had an EA degree in Late March and a FC Degree on April 1 (no, that is not a joke), and not to mention the regular meetings and Open Books. So a quick shout out to the Stewards Williams and Fornea and to any other Brother who has helped out at various times. I do appreciate you!

Winter Park #239 is growing and the food from the Junior Warden needs to reflect that and feed the masses. It is time for some exciting surprises ahead! Our culinary journey this month begins with the comforting flavors of an American classic and ends with the exciting and flavorful dishes of Venezuela, by way of the Senior Wardens amazing better half.

While we're on the topic of meals, I'd like to remind everyone about the annual meal registration card. This is your chance to secure your spot at the table for all the delicious meals planned throughout the year. For just a one-time payment of $200, you'll have access to all the regular meetings, open books, degrees, and special events hosted by the lodge. It's a great way to save some money and support the culinary pursuits of the Junior Warden, while ensuring you never miss out on the fellowship and camaraderie that make our gatherings so special. It is the timely payment for the meals at meeting and the meal card that helps enhance for your dining experience

I want to thank the 14 Brothers that have already purchased their card and remind the others.... If you still don't have your card and want one, come see me next time and we'll get it issued for you!

So, don't wait any longer—take advantage of this opportunity to join us at the table and make the most of your lodge experience. Your presence and participation are what make our gatherings truly memorable.

See you at the next meal!

Fraternally, and with spatula in hand

My Brothers,

I want to thank the Brothers of Winter Park Masonic Lodge No. 239 for electing me as Treasurer for a third year. I cannot believe that three months have already gone by.

As mentioned in last month's Trestleboard, our 2024 financial records have been sent to our CPA to file our lodge taxes (Form 990). Our 990 taxes have been filed, received and accepted by the IRS. This not only met our annual tax filing obligation but fulfilled Executive Order No. 5.

Now that our taxes have been filed, our next lodge obligation is to do our annual filing with the Department of Agriculture in April. Simply put, this allows the lodge to perform fundraisers.

I have been in communications with our Insurance Company. Our annual insurance premium is due in the May-June timeframe. If the Brothers recall from the annual budget, the insurance premium is lodge's largest annual expense. More to follow.

If you have any questions associated with the lodge financials, please contact me at treasurer@winterparklodge.org.

Fraternally,
Greg Seavers, PM
Treasurer

Last month, I mentioned that there was a Brother living near our lodge that needs a ride to attend lodge meetings. So far, I've had one brother express his willingness to assist. To be clear, this is not committing to anything definite, it will likely be a few times a year. So again, I ask that if you can assist with providing transportation, please email me.

Another call back to last month is the reminder that if you have not yet paid your 2025 Dues, now is the time. If you did not receive your reminder in December, please email me and include your current mailing address so I can verify that we have your correct contact information

As the others have mentioned, we recently initiated 2 new Brothers! Welcome Brother's Diaz and Patton. We are also processing a petition for Brothers who have moved to our area and would like to affiliate with our lodge. I encourage you to seek these Brothers out during dinner and spend some time getting to know the upcoming degrees, please make sure you talk to our Sr Deacon and Wardens so they can include you when they are planning their degrees and practices them.

We have two Fellow Craft Degrees coming up, one on April 1st and another at a later date to be determined. Please make plans to attend and support our Brothers as they continue their journey. If you are interested in helping with any of Also, you should know that the annual Grand Communication is coming up soon. It takes place every year on Memorial Day weekend. If you are planning to attend, it is highly recommended that you pre-register. I will be submitting the pre-registration form to Grand Lodge after our second stated communication this month since they need it before the 30th. If you would like to pre-register, please email me and include your full name, member number, and if you are a Perpetual member by our second meeting this month. These are all required by Grand Lodge and with the number of members of our Lodge that attend, it will save a significant amount of time looking up this information for each Brother. Also, if you are attending and not staying at the hotel, I would suggest picking up your registration packet on Sunday. If you've attended a Grand Communication in the past, you know how crazy the lines are on Monday morning for registration. You don't want to get caught up in that. Also, make sure you have your 2025 Dues card on you when you go to pick up your registration packet.

Fraternally,

John Halter, PM

Building Committee

My Brothers,

I would like to thank all Brothers and Appended bodies for utilizing the newly created Building Committee email for requesting the lodge for use, as well as bringing any facility issues to our attention. This helps with documenting any request and supports what we put onto the lodge calendar.

Once a Building Usage request has been made, the Committee will adjudicate the schedule to ensure that the requested dates are available. If the dates are available, they will be immediately added to the official schedule that is on the lodge website. The lodge website will also have the email address.

Reminder that for Building Usage requests, the Building Committee respectively request a 30-45 days advance notice.

We recently replaced a toilet in the Women's bathroom. I would like to thank OES Pioneer Chapter 99 for bringing this issue to my attention.

We are currently getting quotes for a company to perform a maintenance service on our lift station.

The Lodge Rental Agreement forms have recently been updated and will be put on the Lodge Website.

The address for the building committee is building239@winterparklodge.org.

If you have any questions associated with the lodge building, please contact me at building239@winterparklodge.org.

In the event of an emergency, please call or text my cell phone at (407) 375-6243.

In 2010 R.W. H. Glen Avery challenged each of us to contribute to the building fund each year on our birthday. This gift was to represent one dollar for each year of the birthday you are celebrating. Every dollar of your gift will be put into the building fund for use in managing our facilities and helping us to keep it in the pristine condition we have all come to appreciate. You can make your donation by check or credit card. Please see the Secretary or Treasurer for more information.

Charity of the Quarter

The Charity of the Quarter at Winter Park No. 239 will be Second Harvest Food Bank Of Central Florida. The Vital Skills We're Losing To Technology

[SUGGESTION: Make this a group discussion topic. Lots to consider and share.]

In this discussion, we delve into the trend of essential human skills eroded by our increasing reliance on technology. While technology offers numerous benefits, it is crucial to recognize and actively counter its potential to diminish fundamental human capabilities that contribute to our sense of satisfaction, self-efficacy, and overall well-being.

Let's establish the premise that technology, while powerful, can inadvertently lead to a decline in skills that have historically defined human experience. These aren't just quaint, outdated abilities, but rather fundamental aspects of what it means to be human. Let's explore several key skills that are particularly vulnerable in our digitally saturated world.

One of the primary skills discussed is navigation. There is a stark contrast between our ancestors' innate ability to navigate vast landscapes using natural cues and our modern dependence on GPS. The example of Polynesian seafaring shows the incredible feats of navigation achieved through keen observation of stars, currents, and other environmental signals. The reliance on technology, while convenient, atrophies our natural navigational instincts and our awareness of our surroundings. Actively engaging in wayfinding without digital aids, such as using physical maps and practicing orienteering, to reclaim this skill and enhance our spatial awareness.

Reading is another crucial skill under threat. We lament the shift from deep, engaged reading to the fragmented, often superficial consumption of information online. Historically, reading was an active process involving annotation, underlining, and thoughtful reflection. Practices like keeping commonplace books allowed readers to synthesize and internalize knowledge. The digital environment often encourages skimming and multitasking, hindering deep comprehension and critical thinking. I would advocate for a conscious return to reading physical books and employing active reading techniques to foster deeper engagement with texts. Use underlining, highlighting, and margin notes to further develop your reading skills.

We should examine the skill of writing in the context of emerging AI technologies like ChatGPT. While AI can generate text with remarkable speed and proficiency, human writing possesses unique qualities rooted in lived experience and empathy. Writing is not just as a means of communication, but as a tool for organizing and clarifying our thoughts. The act of crafting written words forces a level of cognitive synthesis that is absent in purely oral communication or AI-generated content. Consistent writing practice can hone our ability to articulate complex ideas coherently and thoughtfully.

MASONIC EDUCATION

Craftsmanship, in its broadest sense, encompasses the ability to create and repair things with our hands. Increasing automation and digitization of labor have distanced many people from the tangible world of making. Engaging in crafts, whether woodworking, knitting, or cooking, connects us to our physicality, fosters creativity, and provides a profound sense of accomplishment. Incorporating hands-on hobbies into our lives can offer a valuable counterbalance to our increasingly screen-dominated existence, improving both our mental and physical well-being.

Finally, consider the skill of solitude. In our hyper-connected world, genuine solitude has become a rare commodity. The constant barrage of notifications and the pressure to be perpetually online make it challenging to disconnect and engage in introspection. Solitude is not just about being alone physically, but about creating mental space for reflection, daydreaming, and connecting with our inner selves. The underlying message is the importance of intentionally carving out time for digital detox and quiet contemplation.

The overarching message is not a rejection of technology but a call for mindful engagement. Technology offers incredible tools and conveniences, but we must be aware of its potential to erode fundamental human skills. We should work diligently in finding a balance, consciously cultivating these vital skills to maintain a rich and fulfilling human experience. By actively reclaiming these capabilities, we can enhance our self-reliance, creativity, critical thinking, and overall sense of being fully human in an increasingly technological world.

Major Points:

- Technology can erode vital human skills: Our increasing reliance on technology may lead to a decline in essential capabilities.
- Navigation: Over-dependence on GPS diminishes our natural ability to navigate and our awareness of our surroundings. Reclaim this skill by using maps and practicing wayfinding without technology.
- Reading: Digital consumption often leads to superficial engagement with texts. Practice active reading with physical books to improve comprehension and retention.
- Writing: Human writing involves deeper thought organization and empathy compared to AI-generated content. Regularly practice writing to enhance cognitive skills and articulate ideas effectively.
- Craftsmanship: Engaging in hands-on activities connects us to the physical world, fosters creativity, and improves well-being. Incorporate crafts into your life.
- Solitude: Constant connectivity makes genuine solitude rare. Intentionally disconnect to allow for reflection and inner connection.
- Balance is key: The podcast advocates for a mindful integration of technology without sacrificing essential human skills.
- Reclaiming skills enhances well-being: Actively cultivating these skills can lead to greater satisfaction, self-efficacy, and a stronger connection to the world.
- Humanity beyond technology: The goal is to remain "human beings" and not just passive users of technology.
- Mindful engagement: Be conscious of your use of technology and its impact on your inherent abilities.
